Tun first election of the year will occur in Kentucky in August. Iowa and Ohio will vote in October. Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Penusylvania, Virginia, Mississippi, and Minnesota will follow in Nevember. Besides these, there will be elections for minor offices is other states during the fall. In lowa and Ohio the issue will be wnisky, the prehibition question being before the people of the former state, and the high license question before the people of the latter.

A Bashful Bridegroom.

There is a young man near Sampter who was to be married on a certain night. He had seen and loved the girl, and was too bashful to do his courting, so it had to be done by proxy. The day had arrived, the guests assembled, the license procured, the parson on hand and the bride ready, but the youthful groom did not turn up. The friend who had done the courting went out, and, after looking around, found yes, you can; everybody in there is married but your girl. The long-winded struggle to elect a Senator from New Hampshire is over, and the successful candidate is Austin F. Pike. The struggle was in its seventh week when it ended, and the election took place on the torty-second ballot. We do not know how many . 146 candidates have been voted for 254 since the first ballot in the early 115 part of last June, but the scenes and the actors have been shifted - 42 about in all surts of ways. On the 200 ballot before the last Wm. E. Cha. dier had one yote, and James W. Patterson had one; and upon the final ballot Edward H. Rollins was among three candidates who each had a single vote.
